

ATMA RAM SANATAN DHARMA COLLEGE (UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

Minority Cell

An insightful webinar on “Veer Bal Diwas: Meaning and Significance” was successfully organized by the Minority Cell, ARSD College, on November 26, 2025, in collaboration with Commercico – The Commerce Association, via virtual mode. The session featured eminent speakers Mrs. Banpreet Kaur Khalsa and Mr. Gurdeep Singh, who delivered enriching and thought-provoking discussions on the lives, courage, and supreme sacrifices of the Chaar Sahibzade. Through their addresses, they emphasized the importance of moral strength, unwavering faith in Waheguru, spiritual discipline, and the need to uphold and preserve Sikh heritage and values in contemporary times. The speakers also encouraged participants to imbibe these teachings in their daily lives and remain steadfast in the face of challenges. The event was conducted under the able supervision and guidance of the Principal, Prof. Gyantosh Kumar Jha; the Vice Principal, Prof. Vinita Tuli; WUS-DC Chairperson, Prof. Gurpreet Singh Tuteja; and WUS Nodal Officer, Dr. Baljeet Kaur. The webinar witnessed active participation and engagement from attendees and proved to be highly informative, inspiring, and spiritually uplifting, leaving a profound and lasting impact on all participants.
