

ATMA RAM SANATAN DHARMA COLLEGE (UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

Popular Lecture Series

The Popular Lecture Series and associated academic initiatives at Atma Ram Sanatan Dharma College reflect the institution's unwavering commitment to promoting academic excellence, intellectual curiosity, and holistic development among students. Each event was thoughtfully conceptualized, meticulously planned, and successfully executed through the dedicated efforts of the organizing team. Their strong coordination, attention to detail, and commitment to quality ensured that every session emerged as an enriching and memorable learning experience for participants.

The first session under the banner of Popular lecture Series on “Data Analysis with Excel” was conducted on 30 September 2025 by Mr. Ankush Verma, who delivered a highly engaging and practical workshop. The lecture focused on the increasing relevance of data analysis in today's professional environment. Students were introduced to fundamental concepts such as data cleaning, organization, interpretation, and visualization using Excel. The hands-on approach adopted by the speaker encouraged active participation and enabled students to develop essential analytical skills. The interactive nature of the session made it both informative and practically beneficial.

The Awareness Session on Financial Literacy was organized by Commercico, the Commerce Association, in collaboration with Commtalks and the Popular Lecture Series on 6 October 2025. The event featured Mr. Suryakant Sharma and Prof. Amit Kumar Singh as speakers. The session emphasized the importance of financial literacy, disciplined financial planning, and responsible spending habits. Complex financial concepts were simplified through real-life examples, making them easily understandable for students. The interactive question-and-answer segment at the end allowed participants to clarify their doubts and gain practical insights, making the session impactful and highly relevant.

The programme on Importance of a Strong Military in India's Foreign Policy was organized on 30 October 2025 and began with a formal inauguration and a warm welcome to the distinguished guest, Lt. Gen. Kulkarni. The lecture highlighted the critical role of a strong and strategically prepared military in shaping and supporting India's foreign policy objectives. The speaker addressed key aspects such as geopolitical dynamics, national security, defense preparedness, and military diplomacy. Emphasis was also placed on self-reliance in defense and the importance of youth participation in the armed forces, inspiring students to consider careers in this field.

A seminar on Viksit Bharat 2047 organised on 11 February 2026 in collaboration with SPARDHA: Competitive Exam Society. The session featured Shri Avinash Dharmadhikari, a former IAS officer and renowned social activist. Drawing from his extensive administrative experience, he delivered an insightful and motivating address centered on the vision of a developed India by 2047. He highlighted the vital role of youth in nation-building and encouraged students to actively contribute to societal progress. Additionally, he offered valuable guidance for civil services aspirants, focusing on leadership, governance, and public administration. The session concluded on an inspiring note, leaving participants motivated and future-ready.

The successful execution of these events underscores the dedication, teamwork, and professionalism of the organizing committee. The consistent support and guidance of the respected Principal, the Vice Principal, Convener Dr. Anupriya Arora, and faculty members played a crucial role in ensuring smooth coordination at every stage. These initiatives not only enhanced the academic environment of the college but also provided students with practical knowledge, motivation, and exposure to real-world perspectives. Overall, the Popular Lecture Series proved to be a significant step toward fostering intellectual growth and holistic development among students.
