12. To encourage inclusivity, the Committee recommended that more programmes should be conducted under Equal Opportunity Cell and North-East Welfare Committee to cater to the needs of the marginalized sections.
13. Alumni participation can be encouraged in other fields of the college like placement, fitness, infrastructure, etc.
14. The Committee contemplated the idea of establishing a crèche in the premises looking at the need of teaching and non-teaching staff. Dr. Anju Bajaj was asked to do a survey and make a proposal for the same.
15. Faculty should be encouraged to prepare online learning modules for courses offered by SWAYAM, Arpit and other online portals.
16. Every milestone achieved by students and staff should be uploaded on College website and the faculty profile should be updated on a regular basis.
17. Psychological mentoring should be done especially for first year students who face adjustment problems in new environment.
18. Committee recommended to fast track the construction work of the auditorium and rent it out for holding prestigious lectures. This will not only generate additional income but also result in wide publicity of the facility provided by the College.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
