3. College events such as Foundation Day, Teachers' Day, and Annual Day had been celebrated online with much fanfare.
4. College publications such as the Annual Report, the Prospectus, Student Handbook, newsletters of Nimbus, Tilt, Enactus and the English department Synergy, and Hindi department Samanvay, College Magazine Udayachal, and the NSS Annual Report had been successfully launched online.
5. Enactus had initiated two new projects. Project Suvidha was launched to cater to the COVID-19 crisis to address food and grocery delivery based difficulties during and after lockdown. Under Project Niramaya, members provided hook-able, on-the-go self hygiene kits to fight the fear of unhygienic and contaminated places at nominal rate.
6. Nimbus had conducted an online national debate competition in collaboration with VIPS and an international debate would be conducted on 7 October.
7. The College unit of NSS had distributed food packets among the people of the adopted slum, Sri Ram JJ Cluster. The College Placement Cell had also continued to place students in jobs and internships throughout the Lockdown.

A. Minutes

1. An online meeting of the IQAC was held to discuss modalities for undergraduate admissions, orientation of first year students, and review preparations for the upcoming AAA.
