

ATMA RAM SANATAN DHARMA COLLEGE

(UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

Lecture on Popular Fiction and Society

Date of the Program: 14th October, 2020

No. of Participants: 141

Organized by: Department of English, ARSD College

Name of the Speakers: Dr. Debraj Mookerjee

The English Association of Atma Ram Sanatan Dharma college got the privilege of hosting Dr. Debraj Mookerjee, Associate Professor, Department of English, Ramjas College, University of Delhi for a lecture on "Popular Fiction and Society: Star Trek, Science Fiction and American Pop Culture". The lecture focussed on an extended discourse on popular fiction and its application to the present cultural context.

Some of the key points of the lecture involved World building in Science Fiction Terminology and linking the world building to American frontier, how frontier myth has shaped popular culture, and the impact of popular culture space within the ideological framework.

Dr. Mookerjee also threw light upon the concept of enterprise in american literature and difficulty in distinguishing history from myth. He also talked about how the cast of Star Trek was the first cast with an interracial cast. In addition to that, he also talked about episodes of allegory of the Vietnam war, the political framework of America, criticism of the unilateral role of Government.

The event ended with questions and doubts of students gracefully answered by Sir and a vote of thanks by our In charge and senior faculty member, Dr. Shibani Phukan. The event managed to gather participation by over 100 people, including faculties of other colleges and was a great success.
