Orientation Programme Cum Talk on “North East States”

Date of Program: 25.10.2017

No of Participants: 45

Organised by: Northeast Welfare Committee, ARSD College

Speaker Names: Dr. Amarjeet Singh- Center for North East Studies and Policy Research, JMI and Dr Neena Gulabani, Mentor and Motivational Speaker

ARSD Northeast Welfare Committee organised Orientation cum talk on the topic “The North East States,” to orient the students to the college, to the many societies, and the city and to stress on the importance of using the available resources for self-development and growth as a student, and to strive to become students of high calibre. The Resource Persons were Dr. Amarjeet Singh, Centre for North East Studies and Policy Research, JMI and Dr. Neena Gulabani. Professor Amarjeet Singh spoke on the topic: ‘Has India’s response to cross-border migration been effective?’ and Dr. Neena Gulbani conducted a very interactive session with the students on bridging cultures. Dr Achingliu Kamei, in her welcome address, stressed on the importance of using the available resources for self-development and growth as a student, and striving to become students of high calibre. Dr Gyantosh Kumar Jha, principal of the college encouraged the students, especially the North East students to be courageous and participate in all the students’ activities. He gave a very inspiring speech to the students to excel in academics. In the Q&A time, an alumnus thanked the college for ensuring an atmosphere free of discrimination for the North East students in ARSD to flourish in their undergraduate years. Shri Ajeet Kumar, a member of the North East Welfare Committee gave the appreciation speech. Students from other colleges also attended in good number.
