INTER COLLEGE BILINGUAL DEBATE COMPETITION

Date of the Program: 18th September 2021

No. of the Participants: 150

Organized by: NIMBUS: The English Debating Society, ARSD College

Collaboration: Vedanta, The Hindi Debating Society, Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav Committee, ARSDC

Nimbus, the English Debating Society of ARSD College, and Vedanta, the Hindi Debating Society of ARSD College, co-hosted an Inter College Bilingual Conventional Debate Competition on 18th September 2021 under the aegis of “Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav”– the Government of India’s initiative to commemorate 75 years of Independence. The topic for the debate was “75 years of Independence and Challenges Ahead: Is India Ready to be a Global Power?”

Prof. Gyantosh Kumar Jha, the honorable Principal of ARSD College, opened the event with a meaningful address in which he encouraged attendees with his enlightening words and wished them luck. The event was coordinated by Mr. Deepankar, the Nodal Officer, Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav Committee, in collaboration with Dr. Shubha Dwivedi, the convenor of Nimbus, and Dr. Amit Singh, the convenor of Vedanta. The debate was adjudicated by Dr. Syed Mubin Zehra, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Dr. Jasmine Sharma, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Ms. Mokshda Manchanda, Assistant Professor, Department of English and Dr Geeta Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of Hindi, ARSD College.

The competition witnessed tremendous participation from across the country as 30 participants were shortlisted from an applicant pool of nearly 150 representing various eminent colleges from across the country. Each speaker had to speak either “for” or “against” the motion in a time span of 2 minutes with an additional 1 minute for interjections. The debate was incredibly informative as each speaker justified their stance and brought in tons of research along with providing thorough analysis within their given time. The debate proved to be extremely thought provoking for all the attendees and the topics of discussion ranged from poverty to the international stature of a country
