Organized by: NIMBUS: The English Debating Society, ARSD College

Speaker:

1. Dr. Neelam Yadav, Assistant Prof. Deptt. of English, DCAC, University of Delhi
2. Ms. Mokshada Manchanda, Assistant Prof. Deptt. of English, ARSDC, University of Delhi

Nimbus, the English debating society of ARSD college, University of Delhi organized a Turncoat debating competition celebrating 75 years of independence with “Azadi ka Amit Mahotsav” on January 25TH, 2022 via google meet. The topic of the debate was “This house believes, India has had its fair share of triumphs in the 75 years of its independence”. Miss Mokshada Manchanda, Asst. Prof. ARSDC and Dr. Neelam Yadav, Asst. Prof. DCAC had heartily accepted to be the judges for the event.

The opening ceremony started with a warm welcome of the judges and the participants followed by a short introduction of ARSD college by the hosts. After that the Organising committee explained all the rules and regulations. All the attendees showed excitement for the event and after all the doubts were cleared, it was time for an address by the convener of Nimbus, Dr. Shubha Dwivedi. She invited the respected principal of ARSD college, Prof. Gyantosh Kumar Jha to speak a few words whose inspiring speech gave everyone present a confidence boost. The hosts then requested the judges to say a few words after which everyone was ready for a healthy debating competition.

The main event was started wherein all the 100 participants were set to present their views in the most creative, yet concise ways and confidence. Turncoat events require a lot of skill, and the participants gave each other a healthy competition by presenting all their points in a timely and precise manner. Within 3 minutes each of them was able to present arguments regarding two sides of the same coin with convincing approaches. Each speech was fairly unique and reflected the amount of effort everyone had put into their speeches. After every participant had spoken the judges were then invited to address the participants once again by the convener of the debating society and with this the event came to an end. The results were announced at 8 p.m. on all social media handles of the debating society. All the speeches and point of views inspired everyone and gave them a lot to think about and with that the event proved to be a success.
