Deepening Democracy through elections: Role of the Election

Date of the Program: 17.02.2020

No. of Participants: 115

Organized by: Popular Lecture Series, ARSD College

Speaker: Prof. Anupama Roy, Centre for Political Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University

Prof. Roy's lecture responding to a pressing need for a focused study of India's public institutions put together the first comprehensive monograph-length study of the Election Commission (EC) of India, edited by Prof. Ujjwal Kumar Singh. She probed the consistent credibility that the EC enjoys as a non-partisan constitutional body entrusted with the responsibility of conducting elections in India. The EC is generally seen as a regulatory body that enforces rules to conduct elections effectively and efficiently. The authors argue that the EC must be seen as performing a range of functions, not all of which are regulatory. The EC is actively engaged in framing and implementing rules to ascertain procedural certainty in order to ensure the democratic principle of uncertainty of electoral outcome. In this lecture, she analyzed the relationship between the legal-institutional frameworks of electoral governance within the larger institutional matrix of democracy and the political field in which they are located. The latter, the authors argue, both limit and enable the effectiveness of the EC in the shared space of democracy in India. The programme ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Syed Mubin Zehra. She summarized and reinforced the view expressed by the speaker and thanked her for inspiring, informative and thought-provoking talk that had generated many relevant questions from the students
