Film Screening on Partition-1947

Date of Program: 18th August, 2018

No. of Participants: 94

Organized by: Republica, Association of Political Science

Speaker: Dr. Vikas Tripathi

The movie narrated the true story of the final months of British rule in India. For six months in 1947, Lord Mountbatten, great grandson of Queen Victoria, assumed the post of the last Viceroy, charged with handing India back to its people. The film story unfolds within the Viceroy's House in Delhi, where Mountbatten lived upstairs with his wife and daughter, along with 500 of their Hindu, Muslim, and Sikh servants, who lived downstairs. As the political elite - Nehru, Jinnah, and Gandhi - converged on the House to wrangle over the birth of independent India, conflict erupted. A decision was taken to divide the country and create a new Muslim homeland i.e. Pakistan. It was a decision whose consequences reverberate to this day. After the movie, Dr. Vikas Tripathi initiated the discussion on partition of India with students. He has mentioned that the partition was set forth in the Indian Independence Act 1947 and resulted in the dissolution of the British Raj, as the British government there was called. The two self-governing countries of Pakistan and India legally came into existence at midnight on 14-15 August 1947. Dr. Tripathi has also highlighted some conspiracy theories related to the partition of India that was also shown in the movie.
