Conventional Debate

Date of the Program: November 3, 2022

No. of Participants: 52

Organized by: Nimbus

NIMBUS, the English debating society of Atma Ram Santan Dharma College, organised a riveting intercollegiate conventional debate under the aegis of Vigilance Awareness Week on November 3, 2022. The theme for this year was "Corruption-Free India for a Developed Nation."

The debate was adjudicated by Ms Mokshada Manchanda, assistant professor, department of English, ARSD College, and Mr Deepak Kumar, former secretary, Nimbus (2020–21). The event consisted of two rounds: the preliminary and final rounds.

Each team had a speaker "for" and "against" the motion. Each speaker had 2 minutes to elucidate their stance and 2 minutes for interjections.

The participants brought well-analysed ideas and arguments to rationalise their stance and highlighted some critical issues, such as the misuse of power and the cycle of corruption. Speakers also acknowledged the trade-off between a moral high ground and actual work done in an unethical manner.

Manas Jha and Varun Bansal from Hansraj College bagged the first position, followed by Adarsh Raj and Shubhi Upreti from Dyal Singh College and Mannliv Kaur and Garima Jain from Aryabhata College in the second and third positions, respectively. Diksha Kajla from Kalindi College received the award for best interjector.

Towards the end, the event progressed to a feedback session with the judges.
