The pixelation team reached the venue at 9:30am and arranged the whole thing. We beautifully decorated our stall tables and the allotted space.

The stall had following games and activities:

1. Polaroid photos: In this we offered instant polaroid photos to the visitors with one photo costing 60 rupees.
2. Printed Polaroid: We put out the already printed Polaroid photos for sale with each costing 10 rupees. These beautiful and aesthetic photos were captured by our society members and received good response by the visitors.
3. Poster: We also exhibited the best photos captured by our members which were in both portrait and landscape format. They were also open to sale at 50 rupees each.
4. Compati-baliye : We presented the compatibility test to our visitors. In this game we asked questions to the participants about their friend or partner and if they answered all correctly they were given rewards.
5. Photo challenge: In this we gave a challenge to the participants to click photos and selfies based on the theme they got in random chits picked by them. They were instructed to post the photos in their instagram stories by tagging our pixelation handle.
